TV 'Stars' Talk 'Rescue Squad'

Screen reflection has made a "ghost" of Ray Noble (right), president of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad, but Capt Gordon Staples (left) is clearly visible on the screen as both men talk about the approaching Rescue Squad Drive for $10,000 during Rescue Squad Month, October. Occasion was television's Channel 13 "Calendar" show Monday at 10:30 a.m. with host Jim Stapleton. The Rescue Squad officers explained to the audience that 500 calls or more per year produce quite a bit of "wear and tear" on stretchers, splints, Squad vehicles, etc. and that the Rescue Squad lately has used all three vehicles at the same time more than once – with an oft-repeated siren's wail to announce yet another emergency either here or in a neighboring county (which likewise shares its Rescue Squad men and equipment with Appomattox.) Jim Stapleton said that a "$10,000 Drive is quite a bargain" – $1.00 per citizen – for the services of 27 dedicated explained-men and women plus the latest in oxygen equipment, motor vehicles and communications to assure anyone in time of emergency the best possible treatment. The drive begins on Friday, Oct. 1.

Wanted: Volunteers

The Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, which sponsored a "stuffing party" at the Farmville Armory on Thurs., Sept. 23, is still calling for volunteers.

Mrs. Emma G. Anthony, Executive Director, said, "We need as many volunteers as we can get to help us prepare 50,000 letters for our Christmas Seal Campaign this year."

Anyone who would like to help is welcome to come to the office of the Cent. Va. Tuberculosis and Res. Disease Assoc. office in Farmville any day during the week, Monday-Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., 105 High St., Farmville, Va. Phone 392-5256. Says Mrs. Anthony, "We can always use good volunteers."

Dr. Anthony J. Munoz, pres. of the Assoc. says, "Tuberculosis is far from being licked". To substantiate this he has released a recent report from the Va. Dept. of Health indicating that Appomattox County has 10 cases of tuberculosis under supervision with a total of 359 cases from this area which includes Amelia, Amherst, Appomattox, Buckingham, Campbell, Charlotte, Cumberland, Lunenburg, Nottoway, Powhatan, Prince Edward counties and the city of Lynchburg.

McCormick Sets Pace In Scoring

Mike McCormick, a star left halfback for the Appomattox Raiders, is this week's leader in the Seminole District scoring race with a grand total of 42 points, 7 touchdowns.

Last week McCormick was only in third place with 20 points, 3 touchdowns. However, this week McCormick gathered a full head of steam when the Raiders defeated the Gretna Hawks, 15-0, in a Seminole game Friday. In this game McCormick scored the two decisive touchdowns which gave him the lead in the district scoring race.

Appo Jayvees Trounce Gen'ls. Win 20-6

Appomattox Jayvees put their win-loss record at 2-0 on Thursday in the second victory of the season - this one against the William Campbell Baby Generals with a whopping 20-6 victory. The Junior Generals now are 1-1 for the season.

Dickie Kelso of the Raiders made the first six of the afternoon with a 48 yard run in the 2nd quarter. The end run attempt was no good.

Ronnie Chambers, of the Baby Generals made a 45 yard run in the 2nd quarter to even up the score 6-6.

In the 4th, Mike Preston passed the pigskin from th 26 to the 87th for a 60 yard TD. The pass attempt was no good, but with 12-6 on the board; the Baby Raiders were ready to try again. Again in the 4th Mike Preston made a 35 yard run and this time the extra two points were made by William Lipford with a good run over the goal line. That made it 20-6; 2-0 for the season so far, so cheers for the Raiders - ALL OF THEM ... Attend all the games you can. See the Raiders GO! Jayvees meet Nelson County Jr. Generals this week - Thurs. 6:30 p.m. at the Nelson County High School field, Lovingston.

Jr. Raider coaches are Paris Lenon and Ken Ferguson.

Raiders 5th In Seminole Standings

The Appomattox Raiders' decisive (and shocking, to the experts) victory over Gretna Friday night gives the Raiders a 3-1 overall win-loss standing in the Seminole District with a 1-1 standing in Seminole District Conference play.

To go up on that ladder from 5th to 1st, the Raiders must get ahead of Brookville and Altavisita, tied for 1st place, plus Gretna and Rustburg according to the latest statistics.

For all Raider fans, the word is "GO!" as Appo Varsity players head for another victory this Friday, meeting Nelson County High School at Lovingston. Game time: 8 p.m.
